BIO [230 WORDS]

Sylvie di Giusto, CSP, is an internationally renowned keynote speaker who has dedicated her career to empowering professionals with The Power of Choice. More than a decade ago, Sylvie made the bold decision to transition from her successful 20-year corporate career in Europe to pursue her passion for inspiring audiences across the globe and moved to the United States. As a speaker, she has been trusted by extraordinary leaders and renowned organizations such as American Express, American Airlines, Hilton, Nespresso, Microsoft, Prudential, and even the US Air Force.

Drawing on her expertise in Modern Emotional Intelligence, Sylvie equips her audiences with the Power of Choice to unlock their greatest outcomes in leadership, sales, and customer experience. Through captivating and thought-provoking presentations, she takes participants on an unforgettable journey through the intricacies of the brain, the power of the mind, and the path from the unconscious to the conscious.

In addition to her remarkable achievements as a keynote speaker, Sylvie is a passionate and dedicated volunteer within the speaking industry. Having previously served as the President of NSA NYC, the host of NSA's Winter Conference and NSA's annual convention Influence, to contributing to various task forces and committees, she continues to contribute her expertise and leadership, currently, as NSA's representative on the board of the Global Speakers Federation, further demonstrating her commitment to the growth and success of the international speaking community.
